

Sample Tic-Tac-Toe: Fifth Grade

Using what you know about the legislative system, choose one branch and convince the other two why it is most important.	Create a two voices poem comparing the United States government to one of the following: Canadian, Central American or Mexican government,	Create a graphic organizer using and comparing the branches of United States government.
Complete the web of political and social institutions on page 184 in order to analyze the two types of institutions.	Write a report about government in the United States. In your report, describe at least two ways local, state, and national government are alike and at least two ways they are different. Use specific examples to support your descriptions.	Create your own RAFT in which the topic is the Declaration of Independence.
Read the preamble to the United States' constitution. Explain why this document is important for American citizens, including at least three specific examples from the document.	Describe how a bill becomes a law to someone who just moved to the United States six months ago. Write your description in paragraph form.	Analyze the Federal System of Government using the graphic organizer on page 199.